StackFrame Among the Top 101 Companies to Watch in Florida

Sanford, Fla. (June 25, 2015) - StackFrame, a leader in providing custom software and IT services for private industry and the Department of Defense, has been named a finalist for the statewide competition, 2015 Florida Companies to Watch, a program of GrowFL.

The awards event - now in its fifth year - honors 50 select second-stage companies from throughout the state for developing valuable products and services, creating quality jobs, enriching communities, and broadening new industries throughout Florida. More than 500 companies were nominated for this year's award. The 101 finalists collectively represent $694 million in annual revenue and employ 3,280 full-time equivalent employees.

"It's always a great honor to be recognized in this fashion and to be named one of the top 101 companies to watch throughout the state is gratifying," says Gene McCulley, owner and CEO of StackFrame. "This recognition represents the hard work and innovative thinking going on at StackFrame every day."

The Florida Companies To Watch program consists of two rounds of selections. Finalists now advance to the second round, where they will be further evaluated based on their performance in the marketplace, innovative products, services or processes, philanthropy and empowered employees.
